int Likely Washington and Bultimore Will Be Admitted

The magnates of the Eastern Baseball League held a meeting at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-day. The meeting will mittee appointed at the annual Spring meeting, about ten days ago.

When the National League dropped four clubs, a short while ago, the Eastern League asked for the places of Washington and Baltimore for their the Canadian Pacific Railroad. The contract involved the expenditure of some $8,000,000.

This contract is alleged, was assigned by Onderdonk to D. O. Mills, and disk these two new cities. The meeting is practically to decide on this contract is charged, paid Onderdonk to D. O. Mills, and Mills, it is charged, paid Onderdonk to D. Onderdonk to D

Mart Gary in the First.

The racing began with a six-furlong dash, and the talent picked Sidney Lucas and Tourney as being the best of the bunch. Tourney received the heaviest support, and was backed down a point, while Sidney Lucas remained steady at the opening quetation. Something was known about Gen. Mart Gary, who opened at 7 to 1, for he was plunged on attempts, in which Magic Light showed that he had not forgotten his runaway tricks of last year, the field went away in fair order. Cupidity at once took the lead, and, followed by King Thistic and lead, and, followed by King Thistle and Allie H., led into the stretch. There Gen. Mart Gary moved up and joined Cupidity. It was a hot drive to the finish between this pair, but O'Leary landed Gen. Mart Gary a winner by a head by superior riding. Sidney Lucas, sore and lame, finished a poor third.

As a spectacle the steeplechase wa not a success. From a betting point of view it was for the favorite. Cosmopoli tan came home alone. Brucken was cor tent to rate in behind Lovelorn and tent to rate in behind Lovelorn and Tamor for a mile. Lovelorn got a bad tumble at the liverpool on the second time around and Tamormade the running to the last jump. There he also fell and Cosmoopittan gailopped home. Emory, who was last all the way, was the only other horse that finished. Carson, who rode Lovelorn, was badly shaken up.

I am not flinging around dollars now- heartless play-actor might say it was to be done?" and it was again as the Chicago stone-yards last week.

There are so many new things in these days that I can't take time to look at half of them; but I doubt whether I could have spent a few hours any better than in making pictures of all the sceaze incidents and human figures that could be looked at, without paying any gate-money, in those stone-yards. I should think that Chicago must have some ht-morous poets who can transmit of it, ye cripples. should think that Chicago must have some httmorous poets who can transmit the memories of the occasion to future generations. Let them rattle away before the fall of Troy is forgotten.

It all happened in this wise:

1. A big Chicago cut-stone company had a contract to deliver material at a certain fixed date. A failure to carry out the contract would involve the firm to handle his tools; and at the one too bandle his tools; and at the one too bandle his tools; and at the second to handle his tools; and at the second to the memory handle his tools; and at the second to the memories of the memory handle his tools; and at the second to the memory handle his tools; and at the second to the memory handle his tools; and at the second to the memory handle his tools; and at the second to the memory handle his tools; and at the second to the memory handle his tools; and at the second to the memory handle his tools; and at the second to the memory handle his tools; and at the second to the memory handle his tools; and at the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools; and the second to the memory handle his tools.

2. The contractors thought the strikers would back down a good while ago. No wages, the pangs of hunger and so forth. But the strikers hadn't backed down up till Wednesday last.
